“In my many years in working closely with marketing departments at some of the highest levels of an organization, I have never come across someone who was so passionate about helping a business to achieve its goals and works tirelessly to make those goals a reality. She is a true professional that works with a laser focused approach on getting the job done.”

Brian Schultz, Director of Sales, Medivest.

If you’re considering consulting with Verena, let me just say that I would work with her, and have, in a minute, given her moral conduct, work ethic, successes and deep relationships. “V” will make your life and business much better with her in it, as she has mine. She’s brilliant! Good luck!”

Owner, Dean Chase Trusted Legal Finance

“Verena can really help legal vendors, lawyers, and other professionals like she helps me! Because she’s got a solid knowledge of the legal industry, she jumped right in, and I didn’t have to educate her on the topics we wanted to address. Verena is efficient, capable, talented, and listens acutely. She’s always executed our marketing and branding projects perfectly, getting the much-needed exposure I desired. I would recommend her to anyone who needs a jumpstart getting their name out there, marketing and PR campaigns within the legal field. If interested, please call me for a reference.” Gary Rothkopf, Managing Partner, GSR Consulting LLC

“So thankful that Verena consulted with us. Her work was great! Her website review was thorough; her customized intake form really helped us acquire valuable information onsite to optimize lead follow-up post-events, and her virtual Salesforce coaching helped educate and motivate our multi-cultural team.” Roy Dixon, VP, Trivent Legal
